B. High School Completion Status

Indicate which of the following documents were submitted to either Columbia College or the Fu Foundation School of Engineering and Applied Science as documentation of high school completion as part of your admissions application:

- A copy of your high school diploma.
- A copy of your final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A copy of your General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript.
- An academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- If State law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential is required.
- If State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.

C. Confirmation of Identity and Statement of Educational Purpose

The student must appear in person at Columbia University, Office of Financial Aid & Educational Financing to verify his or her identity by presenting an unexpired valid government-issued photo identification (ID), such as, but not limited to, a driver's license, other state-issued ID, or passport. The Office of Financial Aid & Educational Financing will maintain a copy of the student's photo ID that is annotated by the Office with the date it was received and reviewed, and the name of the official at Columbia University authorized to receive and review the student's ID.

In addition, the student must sign, in the presence of the institutional official, the Statement of Educational Purpose provided below.
